

Please deny the Bankers Association their petition to soften the "Do not Call" rules. This has been so much needed and is quite effective. Bankers have most everything going their way and it is time for the consumer to have something go their way.